Supporting the people of Fife together

We are here for you

Cancer doesn't just affect your physical wellbeing, it can impact on every aspect of your life and the lives of those around you. But knowing where to turn for support isn't always easy.

If you are living in Fife and have been affected by cancer, our Improving the Cancer Journey service is here to help you live as well as possible. We can meet with you to discuss your needs and help you access tailored information and support.

You can talk to us about:

Help accessing organisations that can provide tailored information and support.

Help with money and housing worries.

We also provide support for people affected by cancer.

To get in touch with us or find out more about how we can help, contact 01592 578076 or email improving.cancerjourney@fife.gov.uk

Here's what people say who have engaged with the service.

“Being involved with ICJ service has made it feel like a ‘safety net’ to deal with problems that crop up.”

Colin

“I am coping much better and am coming to terms with what has happened. It has been amazing for me and I really feel the benefit of being involved with the ICJ Service”

Ann

“Thank you so much. Nobody in all our married life has ever helped us like you have. We really appreciate your support”

Philip's wife

“Your support to me has been wonderful – no one else has ever gone the extra mile to help me like you have done”

Jane

If you've recently been diagnosed with cancer you might already have received a letter about us. Don't worry if you did and decided not to get in touch at the time – if you want to find out how we can help now, just give us a call on 01592 578076 or email Improving.CancerJourney@fife.gov.uk
